CANCELLATION & WITHDRAWAL

Cancellation by You During the Cooling-Off Period

16. You have the right to cancel your contract with us for any reason in writing and within 14 days starting on the day after the date we emailed you to confirm your place on the programme (“Cooling-Off Period”) and at least 14 days prior to the programme start date.
17. To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us before the end of the Cooling-Off Period at admissions@voguecollege.com of your decision to cancel this contract by way of a clear statement. Where the Cooling-Off Period would normally end on a day which is a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday, the Cooling-Off Period will be extended so that it ends on our next working day.
18. The College will refund any fees paid without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days after the date on which you inform us you are cancelling this contract. The College will make the refund using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly asked us and we have agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the refund.

Withdrawal by You (Other than During the Cooling-Off Period)

19. If you wish to cancel your registration to a programme after the Cooling-Off Period has expired, the College is not obliged to offer you an alternative programme, but may do so at its discretion (exercised in accordance with our obligations under the Equality Act 2010) and we may specify the terms of any such offer; for example, if there is a deadline for your response or if the fees for the alternative course are different. If no such alternative offer is made or if you decide to reject such alternative offer, the College will refund your Programme Fees in full, minus the non-refundable deposit, if your notice of withdrawal is received in writing at least eight weeks prior to the first day of your Programme. The College does not normally refund Programme Fees after this time.

20. If you withdraw during the period commencing eight weeks prior to the first day of your Programme, but outside the 14-day Cooling-Off Period, you may apply for a partial discretionary Programme Fee refund on exceptional grounds, calculated on the basis of the discretionary refund schedule set forth below. To apply, you must write to Admissions at admissions@voguecollege.com providing an explanation for your withdrawal and reasons why yours should be considered an exceptional case. You should include supporting documentation, if any, and the submission of a refund request does not guarantee it will be successful. The College will consider the appeal and its decision will be final.

21. The College reserves the right to provide you with a refund of Programme Fees under serious, unforeseen circumstances, including but not limited to serious illness or bereavement. The decision to refund Programme Fees under such circumstances is at the College's full discretion.

22. The College will make any refund using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly asked us and we have agreed otherwise.

23. No refunds will be given for early departures from a programme, once it is underway, whether voluntary or otherwise.

Discretionary Refund Schedule

24. The Programme deposit (£2500) and application fee (£40) are non-refundable.

Receipt of Written Notification of Withdrawal	Paid Programme Fees Refunded Less Non- Refundable Deposit
More than eight weeks prior to Orientation	100%
Within the period between eight and two weeks prior to Orientation	60%

Within two weeks prior to Orientation	No refund

Involuntary Withdrawal

- 25. Non-attendance due to illness, or for personal or professional reasons, does not entitle any student or prospective student to a refund or deferral/transfer. We will consider such requests on a case-by-case basis at our discretion.
- 26. The deposit is non-refundable in all circumstances beyond the Cancellation period.
- 27. If you are asked to leave the program as a result of disciplinary issues, non-payment of fees or non-attendance, as outlined in our policies and section “Termination Rights” below, the College will not refund any fees to you.

Withdrawal Due To Visa Issues – Non-UK Students

- 28. You are responsible for ensuring that you have the appropriate visa to enable you to study in the UK, and the rejection of a visa application by UK Visas and Immigration does not affect the application of these terms and conditions. The College recommends that all applicants check with the British Embassy or British High Commission regarding their visa requirements before applying. If you are unable to obtain a visa and have supporting documentary evidence to show this, you can apply in writing to the Admissions at admissions@voguecollege.com to be considered for a refund of programme fees already paid (minus the deposit); you will not be entitled to any full or pro-rata refund amount of any tuition fees paid for that upcoming first term. A pro-rata refund of the subsequent terms will be considered, as per the section entitled “Withdrawal by You Other than During the Cooling Off Period”, unless:
 - You applied for a visa that does not make you eligible to study in the UK on a course of study that you booked/ accepted an offer to.
 - The visa was refused due to fraudulent, misleading or omitted information, documents or activity on your part or if you provided incorrect information.

TERMINATION RIGHTS

29. We may terminate this contract and your application to the College, or registration as a student, with immediate effect in writing in any one or more of the circumstances identified below:

- If you fail to pay your tuition fees to us by the specified due date for payment, and where you fail to make good your debt;
- If you do not meet any of the conditions set out in our offer to you, or if you cease to meet any of those conditions after the contract is formed;
- If you do not enrol onto your programme by the relevant enrolment date;
- If it becomes apparent that the information you have provided to us during your application, or at any stage during the term of this contract, is incorrect or misleading, including by omission of material information;
- If you fail to comply with conditions associated with your immigration status;
- If your continued registration with the College places the College in breach of any of our legal obligations, including under UK immigration law;
- If a decision is made to terminate your studies / registration as a student (or you are otherwise required to exit) on grounds relating to your conduct or fitness to study, for example, under the Student Code of Conduct or Fitness to Study Procedure;
- If you are in material breach of these Terms and Conditions, and/or any of the College's regulations, policies, procedures, or codes of conduct that form part of this contract;
- If your behaviour, in our reasonable opinion, represents a significant risk to the health, safety or welfare of yourself or other students, staff or members of the College's community.

30. If we terminate this contract pursuant to this section, you remain liable for any outstanding tuition fees or costs owed to the College to the date of termination. The College may at our discretion refund some or all of your tuition fees. The College will not be liable for any loss or damage of whatever nature which you may suffer as a result of any action taken against you by the College to terminate the contract, including where we terminate the contract as a result of disciplinary action taken by the College (provided the action by the College is not negligent, and is taken properly in accordance with the contract and the relevant procedures).

The Programmes

31. The College aims to ensure that the student learning experience, as described on the website and student handbooks, is delivered and maintained at all times. In some circumstances, the College may have to vary the method of delivery of your programme, and in some cases, the syllabus may be altered or updated. In the unlikely event that the College discontinues your programme or changes it significantly, whether before you start your programme or once you have begun, we will tell you at the earliest possible opportunity. If this happens before you start your course, you may wish to withdraw your application; if you do so, the College will provide you with support and guidance in finding an alternative programme either at the College or at another UK university or institution and refund your deposit and any programme fees that you have paid.

EVENTS OUTSIDE OF OUR CONTROL

32. The College will do all that it reasonably can to provide your Programme as described on our website and in the Programme Information or other documents issued by the College to you. Despite taking all reasonable steps to prevent them occurring, and to mitigate their impact, some events outside our reasonable control may mean that we are not able to provide your Programme.
33. The College will not be liable for failure or delay, or for the consequence of any failure or delay to perform any obligations under our Contract with you if such failure, delay or the consequence of such failure or delay is caused by an act or event beyond the College's reasonable control ("Force Majeure Event"). Such events may include:
- acts of God;
 - industrial action involving collective bargaining outside of the College;
 - national emergencies, common commotion, war, act of terrorism (including actual, suspected or threatened act of terrorism), explosion, protests, riots;
 - the imposition of sanctions;
 - epidemics, pandemics, quarantine, widespread illness and mandatory responses to Governmental advice (whether affecting our staff and/or students or otherwise);
 - breakdown of plant or machinery;
 - actions or the lack of actions of placement providers;
 - actions or the lack of suppliers or subcontractors;
 - staff illness or because a staff member leaves; or
 - weather disruption, fire, flood or storm.
34. In the case of a Force Majeure Event, we will contact you to advise of an alternative course of action, where possible. The College shall use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations under our Contract with you and such mitigations may include, without limitation, altering timetables to reschedule postponed classes.
35. If a Force Majeure Event results in the complete inability to deliver your Programme then you will be entitled to:

- defer your Programme, if you have not yet enrolled on to your Programme; or
- terminate your Programme with immediate effect by contacting admissions@voguecollege.com. If you decide to terminate your Programme, you may be entitled to a full or partial refund of tuition fees you have paid and/or compensation depending on the circumstances and we will act reasonably in making a determination as to whether a full or partial refund of tuition fees and/or compensation is due.

PROGRAMME CHANGES, CANCELLATION AND SUSPENSION

Programme Changes

36. If it reasonably considers it to be necessary, the College may make reasonable changes to the content, syllabus, mode of assessment, and/or timetable of your programme which:
- are not material to the overall learning outcomes of the programme (for example, moving the timing of a particular module);
 - will benefit the training of you or other students (for example, enabling you or other students to benefit from additional classes with visiting professionals);
 - are caused by matters outside of our control, as set out above under 'Events Outside of Our Control'; and/or
 - are in order to comply with changes in the law or, as applicable, the instructions of higher education regulatory bodies, the validating university, and/or any professional/statutory body.
37. Where changes to be made to programmes are not significant, the College will consult the affected students and will take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity, and to minimise any disruption to your studies.
38. The College defines 'significant changes' to a programme of study as changes requiring full approval by the validating university, such as changes to the award, core modules or delivery mode. In the unlikely event that a programme is changed significantly:
- the College will consult the affected students and will take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity, and to minimise any disruption to your studies;
 - you will be entitled to withdraw from the programme by informing us of this intention in writing;
 - if you withdraw from your programme, the College will refund programme fees and deposits paid in accordance with the Refunds and Compensation Policy (please note that refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis) and we will provide you with support and guidance in finding an alternative programme either at the College or at another UK provider.

Programme Cancellation and Suspension

39. The College may cancel or suspend programmes if there are insufficient numbers of student enrolments to make a programme viable, or for any reason outside the College's control. Where relevant, the College's Student Protection Plan may apply. In the unlikely event that the College cancels or suspends your programme:

- the College will consult the affected students and will take all reasonable steps to notify you at the earliest opportunity, and to minimise any disruption to your studies;
- the College will review the decision in accordance with the applicable Student Protection Plan to determine appropriate refunds of programme fees and deposits paid (please note that refunds may be calculated on a pro rata basis) and;
- we will provide you with support and guidance in finding an alternative programme either at the College or at another UK provider.

40. If a programme that you are registered with is cancelled or postponed then the College may offer you the choice of a place on an alternative programme at no additional cost in fees payable.

41. The alternative programme will be as close in time to the cancelled programme as we are able to provide. You will be required to nominate your alternative choice of programme within 7 days of having been notified of the change. If an alternative programme is unavailable or you do not wish to accept the offer of an alternative programme then the College will provide a full refund of your deposit and any programme fees that you have paid.

FACE-TO-FACE INSTRUCTION

42. In the event that face-to-face teaching needs to be modified, reduced, or cancelled, due to health and safety concerns and government or other regulatory guidance and/or requirements, the College reserves the right to prioritise the continuity of teaching using remote online methods, with the aim of both ensuring that student learning outcomes continue to be met and the facilitation of timely completion of degree programmes. If this takes place, the College shall not be liable to students for refunds or compensation where it has delivered its obligations to students in alternative ways in such circumstances.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

43. The College is committed to having an inclusive environment that facilitates disclosure of disability and gives all students the opportunity to realise their full potential and undertakes to make reasonable adjustments in order to accommodate them.

44. The College welcomes applications from students with disabilities and learning differences and undertakes to make reasonable adjustments in order to accommodate them. To be able to do this it is helpful if students let us know about any disabilities or learning differences they have as early as possible during the application process or email us at admissions@voguecollege.com. All discussions and information regarding a disability or learning difference are treated in a confidential manner and in accordance with the College's Privacy Policy.

- If you do not have your full documentation you must still attend the face-to-face session and provide evidence of your progress with the visa process.
- Failure to produce the required documentation before the Programme start date may lead to the cancellation of your place at the College and your non-compliance being reported to the UKVI.

48. During Your Programme Of Study:

- You must inform the College of any changes to your personal and/or academic circumstances which might have an impact on your visa status, including any part-time employment during term time.
- Any change of your address, visa status or passport details must be reported promptly by you to the College by emailing admissions@voguecollege.com.
- You are responsible for ensuring that your visa remains valid from the commencement of and for the duration of your Programme and that you apply for any necessary extension/renewal in good time.
- You will be expected to meet all the attendance and submission dates relevant to your Programme of study.
- Failure to comply with these requirements may lead to your suspension from the College and ultimately the cancellation of your place on a Programme at the College with your non-compliance being reported to the UKVI.

Insurance

49. Non-UK students are required to have adequate health, accident, disability, and hospitalisation insurance to cover themselves during their time at the College. Students recognise and accept that no part of the course fee goes toward payment of such insurance and that the College has no obligation to provide such insurance.

All students will be required to acknowledge that they have reviewed the contents of the Collegiate Student Handbook and agree to compliance during orientation.
52. If you fail to follow the College's Student Code of Conduct or policies, or behave in a threatening or aggressive manner, or in a way that adversely affects other students, the College's employees or contractors, or bring the College into disrepute through your actions, we reserve the right to remove you from the Programme or exclude you from the College's premises and/or, where appropriate, any accommodation provided to you by us. In such cases, the Fees will not be refunded.
53. Students understand that should they have legal or medical problems while they are enrolled at the College, they will attend to the matter personally and with their own funds. They accept that the College will not provide any personal or financial assistance.

If you opt into the Programme accommodation provision, the College shall provide accommodation to you whilst you are in the Programme, and you agree to abide by and comply with any and all rules and regulations of that residence. You must observe all rules and regulations regarding health and safety and security and do nothing to compromise your own or other residents' safety and security. You should also behave courteously to other residents, staff, and visitors at the accommodation. Please note that it is a requirement of the accommodation to leave the room in a clean and tidy state. If you do not comply with these requirements, you may be asked to leave the accommodation and the College shall have no further obligation to provide you with such accommodation or reimburse costs.

58. Students are required to abide by and comply with all Programme regulations and expectations; alternative housing and its related circumstances (e.g., delays or cancellations to travel from your accommodation) do not constitute an academic mitigating circumstance. 59. Students who opt not to reside in the accommodation provided by the College are required to provide their London address and related contact information to the College; additional information required for visa compliance may also be requested.
